AN ACT

To repeal section 193.125, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to birth certificates.

---

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 193.125, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 193.125, to read as follows:

193.125. 1. This section shall be known and may be cited as the "Debbi Daniel Law".

2       2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 of this section,
3       for each adoption decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state, the 4       court shall require the preparation of a certificate of decree of adoption on a form 5       as prescribed or approved by the state registrar. The certificate of decree of 6       adoption shall include such facts as are necessary to locate and identify the 7       certificate of birth of the person adopted, and shall provide information necessary 8       to establish a new certificate of birth of the person adopted and shall identify the 9       court and county of the adoption and be certified by the clerk of the court. The 10      state registrar shall file the original certificate of birth with the certificate of 11      decree of adoption and such file may be opened by the state registrar only upon 12      receipt of a certified copy of an order as decreed by the court of adoption.

14      [2.] 3. No new certificate of birth shall be established following 15      an adoption by a stepparent if so requested by the adoptive parent or 16      the adoptive stepparent of the child.

17      4. Information necessary to prepare the report of adoption shall be 18      furnished by each petitioner for adoption or the petitioner's attorney. The social

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

19 welfare agency or any person having knowledge of the facts shall supply the court 20 with such additional information as may be necessary to complete the 21 report. The provision of such information shall be prerequisite to the issuance 22 of a final decree in the matter by the court.

23       [3.] 5. Whenever an adoption decree is amended or annulled, the clerk 24 of the court shall prepare a report thereof, which shall include such facts as are 25 necessary to identify the original adoption report and the facts amended in the 26 adoption decree as shall be necessary to properly amend the birth record.

27       [4.] 6. Not later than the fifteenth day of each calendar month or more 28 frequently as directed by the state registrar the clerk of the court shall forward 29 to the state registrar reports of decrees of adoption, annulment of adoption and 30 amendments of decrees of adoption which were entered in the preceding month, 31 together with such related reports as the state registrar shall require.

32       [5.] 7. When the state registrar shall receive a report of adoption, 33 annulment of adoption, or amendment of a decree of adoption for a person born 34 outside this state, he or she shall forward such report to the state registrar in the 35 state of birth.

36       [6.] 8. In a case of adoption in this state of a person not born in any 37 state, territory or possession of the United States or country not covered by 38 interchange agreements, the state registrar shall upon receipt of the certificate
39 of decree of adoption prepare a birth certificate in the name of the adopted 40 person, as decreed by the court. The state registrar shall file the certificate of the 41 decree of adoption, and such documents may be opened by the state registrar only 42 by an order of court. The birth certificate prepared under this subsection shall 43 have the same legal weight as evidence as a delayed or altered birth certificate 44 as provided in section 193.235.

45       [7.] 9. The department, upon receipt of proof that a person has been 46 adopted by a Missouri resident pursuant to laws of countries other than the 47 United States, shall prepare a birth certificate in the name of the adopted person 48 as decreed by the court of such country. If such proof contains the surname of 49 either adoptive parent, the department of health and senior services shall prepare
50 a birth certificate as requested by the adoptive parents. Any subsequent change 51 of the name of the adopted person shall be made by a court of competent 52 jurisdiction. The proof of adoption required by the department shall include a 53 copy of the original birth certificate and adoption decree, an English translation 54 of such birth certificate and adoption decree, and a copy of the approval of the

55 immigration of the adopted person by the Immigration and Naturalization Service 56 of the United States government which shows the child lawfully entered the 57 United States. The authenticity of the translation of the birth certificate and 58 adoption decree required by this subsection shall be sworn to by the translator
59 in a notarized document. The state registrar shall file such documents received 60 by the department relating to such adoption and such documents may be opened 61 by the state registrar only by an order of a court. A birth certificate pursuant to 62 this subsection shall be issued upon request of one of the adoptive parents of such 63 adopted person or upon request of the adopted person if of legal age. The birth 64 certificate prepared pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall have the 65 same legal weight as evidence as a delayed or altered birth certificate as provided 66 in sections 193.005 to 193.325.

67       [8.] 10. If no certificate of birth is on file for the person under twelve 68 years of age who has been adopted, a belated certificate of birth shall be filed 69 with the state registrar as provided in sections 193.005 to 193.325 before a new 70 birth record is to be established as result of adoption. A new certificate is to be 71 established on the basis of the adoption under this section and shall be prepared 72 on a certificate of live birth form.

73       [9.] 11. If no certificate of birth has been filed for a person twelve years
74 of age or older who has been adopted, a new birth certificate is to be established 75 under this section upon receipt of proof of adoption as required by the 76 department. A new certificate shall be prepared in the name of the adopted 77 person as decreed by the court, registering adopted parents' names. The new 78 certificate shall be prepared on a delayed birth certificate form. The adoption 79 decree is placed in a sealed file and shall not be subject to inspection except upon 80 an order of the court.
