AN ACT

To repeal section 217.690, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to repealing intervention fees for parolees.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 217.690, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 217.690, to read as follows:

217.690. 1. When in its opinion there is reasonable probability that an offender of a correctional center can be released without detriment to the community or to himself, the board may in its discretion release or parole such person except as otherwise prohibited by law. All paroles shall issue upon order of the board, duly adopted.

2. Before ordering the parole of any offender, the board shall have the offender appear before a hearing panel and shall conduct a personal interview with him or her, unless waived by the offender. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon. An offender shall be placed on parole only when the board believes that he or she is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen. Every offender while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the department but shall be subject to the orders of the board.

3. The board has discretionary authority to require the payment of a fee, not to exceed sixty dollars per month, from every offender placed under board supervision on probation[, parole,] or conditional release, to waive all or part of any fee, to sanction offenders for willful nonpayment of fees, and to contract with a private entity for fee collections services. All fees

16 collected shall be deposited in the inmate fund established in section 217.430. Fees collected
17 may be used to pay the costs of contracted collections services. The fees collected may otherwise 18 be used to provide community corrections and intervention services for offenders. Such services 19 include substance abuse assessment and treatment, mental health assessment and treatment, 20 electronic monitoring services, residential facilities services, employment placement services, 21 and other offender community corrections or intervention services designated by the board to 22 assist offenders to successfully complete probation, parole, or conditional release. The board 23 shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 217.040, with respect to 24 sanctioning offenders and with respect to establishing, waiving, collecting, and using fees.

25 4. The board shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 26 217.040, with respect to the eligibility of offenders for parole, the conduct of parole hearings or 27 conditions to be imposed upon paroled offenders. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall 28 recite the conditions of such parole.

29 5. When considering parole for an offender with consecutive sentences, the minimum 30 term for eligibility for parole shall be calculated by adding the minimum terms for parole
31 eligibility for each of the consecutive sentences, except the minimum term for parole eligibility 32 shall not exceed the minimum term for parole eligibility for an ordinary life sentence.

33 6. Any offender under a sentence for first degree murder who has been denied release 34 on parole after a parole hearing shall not be eligible for another parole hearing until at least three 35 years from the month of the parole denial; however, this subsection shall not prevent a release
36 pursuant to subsection 4 of section 558.011, RSMo.

37 7. Parole hearings shall, at a minimum, contain the following procedures:

38 (1) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing may be 39 accompanied by one other person;

40 (2) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing shall have the 41 option of giving testimony in the presence of the inmate or to the hearing panel without the 42 inmate being present;

43 (3) The victim or person representing the victim may call or write the parole board rather 44 than attend the hearing;

45 (4) The victim or person representing the victim may have a personal meeting with a 46 board member at the board's central office;

47 (5) The judge, prosecuting attorney or circuit attorney and a representative of the local 48 law enforcement agency investigating the crime shall be allowed to attend the hearing or provide 49 information to the hearing panel in regard to the parole consideration; and

50 (6) The board shall evaluate information listed in the juvenile sex offender registry 51 pursuant to section 211.425, RSMo, provided the offender is between the ages of seventeen and 52 twenty-one, as it impacts the safety of the community.

53 8. The board shall notify any person of the results of a parole eligibility hearing if the 54 person indicates to the board a desire to be notified.

55 9. The board may, at its discretion, require any offender seeking parole to meet certain 56 conditions during the term of that parole so long as said conditions are not illegal or impossible
57 for the offender to perform. These conditions may include an amount of restitution to the state 58 for the cost of that offender's incarceration.

59 10. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the release of an 60 offender on parole nor to reduce the sentence of an offender heretofore committed.

61 11. Beginning January 1, 2001, the board shall not order a parole unless the offender has 62 obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent, or unless the board is satisfied that the offender, 63 while committed to the custody of the department, has made an honest good-faith effort to obtain 64 a high school diploma or its equivalent; provided that the director may waive this requirement
65 by certifying in writing to the board that the offender has actively participated in mandatory 66 education programs or is academically unable to obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent.

67 12. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that 68 is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies
69 with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section
70 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers 71 vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the 72 effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the 73 grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2005, shall be 74 invalid and void.
