AN ACT

To repeal section 563.031, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the use of force in defense of persons.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 563.031, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 563.031, to read as follows:

563.031. 1. A person may, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of this section, use physical force upon another person when and to the extent he or she reasonably believes such force to be necessary to defend himself or herself or a third person from what he or she reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of unlawful force by such other person, unless:

(1) The actor was the initial aggressor; except that in such case his or her use of force is nevertheless justifiable provided:

(a) He or she has withdrawn from the encounter and effectively communicated such withdrawal to such other person but the latter persists in continuing the incident by the use or threatened use of unlawful force; or

(b) He or she is a law enforcement officer and as such is an aggressor pursuant to section 563.046; or

(c) The aggressor is justified under some other provision of this chapter or other provision of law;

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

14 (2) Under the circumstances as the actor reasonably believes them to be, the person
15 whom he or she seeks to protect would not be justified in using such protective force;

16 (3) The actor was attempting to commit, committing, or escaping after the commission
17 of a forcible felony.

18 2. A person may not use deadly force upon another person under the circumstances
19 specified in subsection 1 of this section unless:

20 (1) He or she reasonably believes that such deadly force is necessary to protect himself
21 or herself or another against death, serious physical injury, or any forcible felony; or

22 (2) Such force is used against a person who unlawfully enters, remains after unlawfully
23 entering, or attempts to unlawfully enter a dwelling, residence, or vehicle lawfully occupied by 24 such person.

25 3. A person does not have a duty to retreat [from a dwelling, residence, or vehicle where 26 the person is not unlawfully entering or unlawfully remaining].

27 4. The justification afforded by this section extends to the use of physical restraint as
28 protective force provided that the actor takes all reasonable measures to terminate the restraint
29 as soon as it is reasonable to do so.

30 5. The defendant shall have the burden of injecting the issue of justification under this 31 section.
