

HB 1318 -- Disclosure of Employment Information

Sponsor: Davis

This bill specifies that disclosure of an employee's job performance information by an employer or his or her employee to a prospective employer is presumed to be provided in good faith. An employer will be immune from civil liability for the disclosure or its consequences unless lack of good faith is shown.