

HB 1606 -- Telemarketing No-Call List

Sponsor: Bringer

This bill revises the definition of "telephone solicitation" as it relates to the No-call List by prohibiting political campaigns from using live operators through the use of automatic dialing announcing devices to call anyone on the No-call List to endorse a political candidate, request financial support or a vote for a political candidate, or conduct political polling.