

HB 1707 -- Design-Build Contracts for School Districts

Sponsor: Baker (123)

This bill authorizes school districts to enter into design-build contracts for construction projects costing more than $15,000. Design-build procedures are established regarding the process in individual school districts including requesting proposals, advertising, awarding contracts, employing an architect or engineer, and setting requirements for bonding and contractor licensure and exemptions.