

HB 1725 -- Jury Service

Sponsor: Villa

Currently, upon timely application to the court, health care providers are excused from jury service. This bill removes the provision and allows the court at its discretion to excuse a health care provider if he or she makes timely application to the court and provides a written statement certifying that he or she is providing critical health care services to patients and that serving on a jury would be detrimental to the health of the patients.