

HB 1838 -- Health Insurance Coverage for Cervical Cancer Screenings

Sponsor: Low (39)

Beginning January 1, 2009, this bill requires all health carriers and health benefit plans, excluding supplemental insurance policies, to include coverage for the cost of periodic human papillomavirus (HPV) screenings for cervical cancer. The screening will be subject to the same deductibles or co-payments as other similar health care services.