

HB 1899 -- Guardians Ad Litem

Sponsor: Harris (110)

Currently, a court is required to order the appointment of a guardian ad litem or special advocate to represent a child victim after entry of an ex parte order of protection. This bill removes the requirement and allows the appointment to be at the court's discretion.