

HB 1959 -- Transmission of Insurance-Related Information

Sponsor: Yates

This bill allows automobile insurers to send renewal notices electronically as an alternative to sending them by first-class mail if requested by the policyholder on the application form or in writing. The policyholder has the right to cancel the electronic notification, and insurance companies cannot provide notice of a policy cancellation by electronic notification.