

HB 2110 -- Display of Documents with Religious Content

Sponsor: Dixon

This bill prohibits any governing authority, board, commission, or the personnel of any political subdivision from preventing the display of the founding documents of the United States or the State of Missouri regardless of whether the documents contain religious content.