

HB 2123 -- Relocation of a Child

Sponsor: Aull

Currently, a notice must be given to all parties with custodial or visitation rights anytime a child, whose parents are no longer married, is removed from his or her principal residence for more than 90 days. This bill changes the requirement so that notice must only be given if the child is relocated 50 miles or more away from the principal residence.