

HB 2229 -- Health Insurance Coverage for Ancillary Medical Services

Sponsor: Page

This bill requires all health insurance carriers to provide coverage for ancillary medical services for outpatient diagnostic screenings and surgical interventions services when the treating physician determines the services to be medically necessary. Certain insurance policies are exempt from the provisions of the bill.