

HB 2280 -- Tuition for College Courses

Sponsor: Cunningham (86)

Beginning with the fall term of the 2009-2010 academic year, this bill prohibits a student from taking a college course at a public institution of higher education more than twice unless the student pays tuition at the institution's cost of instruction rather than its regular tuition rate. Exceptions can be made for circumstances specified in the bill.