

HB 2350 -- Access to Credit and Debit Card Rate Information

Sponsor: Yaeger

This bill requires financial institutions to give a merchant access to the rules related to a contract authorizing a merchant to accept a credit or debit card from the financial institution. The contract must contain information regarding any fees or transaction rates the institution will charge the merchant for accepting the credit or debit card.