

HB 288 -- Waiver of Workers' Compensation Benefits

Sponsor: Cunningham

This bill specifies that a general contractor is not required to provide workers' compensation benefits to a subcontractor and his or her employees if they have opted out of the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Law for religious reasons.