

HB 537 -- CONVEYANCE IN ST. LOUIS CITY

This bill authorizes the Governor to convey state property located in St. Louis City, which is currently being used by the Department of Corrections as a minimum security correctional facility, to the Highways and Transportation Commission for the new Mississippi River Bridge project.