

HB 971 -- Securities Regulation

Sponsor: Bringer

This bill revises the definition of "security" as it is used in the laws regulating securities so that the sale of variable annuities will be governed by the Secretary of State instead of by the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions and Professional Registration.