

HJR 27 -- Conservation Commission

Sponsor: Ruzicka

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment increases the number of members on the Conservation Commission from four to eight and requires that one member be from each Department of Conservation region and not more than four be from the same political party.