

HOUSE AMENDMENT NO.FOR*HOUSE AMENDMENT NO. 7*Offered by

_____ of _____

AMEND House Amendment No. 7, Pages 1 to 4, Section 162.1032, by deleting all of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"162.1400. 1. If a child's parent is an active member of the United States military who is required to reside on a military installation because the parent is classified as "key and essential personnel", as defined in subsection 2 of this section, the child's parent may send the child to public school in either the district of residence or to any other public school within a thirty-mile radius of the military installation, provided the parent was previously assigned to such installation and the child or a sibling of the child previously attended a school in such school district.

2. As used in this section, "key and essential personnel" means personnel with duties requiring their immediate availability on an installation because of military necessity or operational requirements, as determined by the commander.

3. The school district of choice shall count the child in its average daily attendance for the purpose of distribution of state aid through the foundation formula.

4. If the school district of choice does not have an existing bus route to provide transportation for the child, the child's parent shall be responsible for transporting the child to the school district of choice.

5. A parent may elect to send his or her child to a public school in a district other than the district of residence under the provisions of this section only once per school year.

6. Any person who knowingly submits false information to satisfy any requirement of this section is guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

7. In addition to any other penalties authorized by law, a district board may file a civil action to recover, from the parent, military guardian, or legal guardian of the pupil, the costs of school attendance for any pupil who was enrolled at a school in the district and whose parent, military guardian, or legal guardian filed false information to satisfy any requirement of this section."; and Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional references accordingly.
