

HOUSE _____ AMENDMENT NO. _____

Offered By

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 987, Section A, Page 1, Line 2, by inserting after all of said section the following:

“37.005. 1. Except as provided herein, the office of administration shall be continued as set forth in house bill 384, seventy-sixth general assembly and shall be considered as a department within the meaning used in the Omnibus State Reorganization Act of 1974. The commissioner of administration shall appoint directors of all major divisions within the office of administration.

2. The commissioner of administration shall be a member of the governmental emergency fund committee as ex officio comptroller and the director of the department of revenue shall be a member in place of the chief of the planning and construction division.

3. The office of administration is designated the "Missouri State Agency for Surplus Property" as required by Public Law 152, eighty-first Congress as amended, and related laws for disposal of surplus federal property. All the powers, duties and functions vested by sections 37.075 and 37.080, and others, are transferred by type I transfer to the office of administration as well as all property and personnel related to the duties. The commissioner shall integrate the program of disposal of federal surplus property with the processes of disposal of state surplus property to provide economical and improved service to state and local agencies of government. The governor shall fix the amount of bond required by section 37.080. All employees transferred shall be covered by the provisions of chapter 36, RSMo, and the Omnibus State Reorganization Act of 1974.

4. The commissioner of administration shall replace the director of revenue as a member of the board of fund commissioners and assume all duties and responsibilities assigned to the director of revenue by sections 33.300 to 33.540, RSMo, relating to duties as a member of the board and matters relating to bonds and bond coupons.

5. All the powers, duties and functions of the administrative services section, section 33.580, RSMo, and others, are transferred by a type I transfer to the office of administration and the administrative services section is abolished.

6. The commissioner of administration shall, in addition to his or her other duties, cause to be prepared a comprehensive plan of the state's field operations, buildings owned or rented and the communications systems of state agencies. Such a plan shall place priority on improved

1 availability of services throughout the state, consolidation of space occupancy and economy in 2 operations.

3 7. The commissioner of administration shall from time to time examine the space needs of 4 the agencies of state government and space available and shall, with the approval of the board of 5 public buildings, assign and reassign space in property owned, leased or otherwise controlled by 6 the state. Any other law to the contrary notwithstanding, upon a determination by the 7 commissioner that all or part of any property is in excess of the needs of any state agency, the 8 commissioner may lease such property to a private or government entity. Any revenue received 9 from the lease of such property shall be deposited into the fund or funds from which moneys for 10 rent, operations or purchase have been appropriated. The commissioner shall establish by rule the 11 procedures for leasing excess property.

12 8. The commissioner of administration shall make the selection of a personnel director 13 from the names of the three highest ranking available eligibles as provided in section 36.080, 14 RSMo. The personnel advisory board, the personnel division and the personnel director in the 15 office of administration shall retain the functions, duties and powers prescribed in chapter 36, 16 RSMo. Members of the personnel advisory board shall be nominated by the commissioner of 17 administration and appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

18 9. The commissioner of administration is hereby authorized to coordinate and control the 19 acquisition and use of electronic data processing (EDP) and automatic data processing (ADP) in 20 the executive branch of state government. For this purpose, the office of administration will have 21 authority to:

22 (1) Develop and implement a long-range computer facilities plan for the use of EDP and 23 ADP in Missouri state government. Such plan may cover, but is not limited to, operational 24 standards, standards for the establishment, function and management of service centers, 25 coordination of the data processing education, and planning standards for application development 26 and implementation;

27 (2) Approve all additions and deletions of EDP and ADP hardware, software, and support 28 services, and service centers;

29 (3) Establish standards for the development of annual data processing application plans
30 for each of the service centers. These standards shall include review of post-implementation 31 audits. These annual plans shall be on file in the office of administration and shall be the basis for 32 equipment approval requests;

33 (4) Review of all state EDP and ADP applications to assure conformance with the state
34 information systems plan, and the information systems plans of state agencies and service centers;

35 (5) Establish procurement procedures for EDP and ADP hardware, software, and support 36 service;

1 (6) Establish a charging system to be used by all service centers when performing work
2 for any agency;

3 (7) Establish procedures for the receipt of service center charges and payments for 4 operation of the service centers. The commissioner shall maintain a complete inventory of all
5 state-owned or -leased EDP and ADP equipment, and annually submit a report to the general
6 assembly which shall include starting and ending EDP and ADP costs for the fiscal year
7 previously ended, and the reasons for major increases or variances between starting and ending 8 costs. The commissioner shall also adopt, after public hearing, rules and regulations designed to 9 protect the rights of privacy of the citizens of this state and the confidentiality of information
10 contained in computer tapes or other storage devices to the maximum extent possible consistent 11 with the efficient operation of the office of administration and contracting state agencies.

12 10. Except as provided in subsection 13 of this section, the fee title to all real property
13 now owned or hereafter acquired by the state of Missouri, or any department, division, 14 commission, board or agency of state government, other than real property owned or possessed by 15 the state highways and transportation commission, conservation commission, state department of 16 natural resources, and the University of Missouri, shall on May 2, 1974, vest in the governor. The 17 governor may not convey or otherwise transfer the title to such real property, unless such 18 conveyance or transfer is first authorized by an act of the general assembly. The provisions of this 19 subsection requiring authorization of a conveyance or transfer by an act of the general assembly
20 shall not, however, apply to the granting or conveyance of an easement to any rural electric 21 cooperative as [defined] governed in chapter 394, RSMo, municipal corporation, 22 quasi-governmental corporation owning or operating a public utility, or a public utility, except 23 railroads, as defined in chapter 386, RSMo. The governor, with the approval of the board of 24 public buildings, may, upon the request of any state department, agency, board or commission not 25 otherwise being empowered to make its own transfer or conveyance of any land belonging to the 26 state of Missouri which is under the control and custody of such department, agency, board or 27 commission, grant or convey without further legislative action, for such consideration as may be 28 agreed upon, easements across, over, upon or under any such state land to any rural electric 29 cooperative, as defined in chapter 394, RSMo, municipal corporation, or quasi-governmental 30 corporation owning or operating a public utility, or a public utility, except railroad, as defined in 31 chapter 386, RSMo. The easement shall be for the purpose of promoting the general health, 32 welfare and safety of the public and shall include the right of ingress or egress for the purpose of 33 constructing, maintaining or removing any pipeline, power line, sewer or other similar public 34 utility installation or any equipment or appurtenances necessary to the operation thereof, except 35 that railroad as defined in chapter 386, RSMo, shall not be included in the provisions of this 36 subsection unless such conveyance or transfer is first authorized by an act of the general assembly.

1 The easement shall be for such consideration as may be agreed upon by the parties and approved
2 by the board of public buildings. The attorney general shall approve the form of the instrument of 3 conveyance. The commissioner of administration shall prepare management plans for such 4 properties in the manner set out in subsection 7 of this section.

5 11. The commissioner of administration shall administer a revolving "Administrative 6 Trust Fund" which shall be established by the state treasurer which shall be funded annually by 7 appropriation and which shall contain moneys transferred or paid to the office of administration in 8 return for goods and services provided by the office of administration to any governmental entity
9 or to the public. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the fund, and shall approve 10 disbursements from the fund for the purchase of goods or services at the request of the 11 commissioner of administration or the commissioner's designee. The provisions of section 12 33.080, RSMo, notwithstanding, moneys in the fund shall not lapse, unless and then only to the 13 extent to which the unencumbered balance at the close of any fiscal year exceeds one-eighth of the 14 total amount appropriated, paid, or transferred to the fund during such fiscal year, and upon 15 approval of the oversight division of the joint committee on legislative research. The 16 commissioner shall prepare an annual report of all receipts and expenditures from the fund.

17 12. All the powers, duties and functions of the department of community affairs relating 18 to statewide planning are transferred by type I transfer to the office of administration.

19 13. The titles which are vested in the governor by or pursuant to this section to real 20 property assigned to any of the educational institutions referred to in section 174.020, RSMo, on 21 June 15, 1983, are hereby transferred to and vested in the board of regents of the respective 22 educational institutions, and the titles to real property and other interests therein hereafter acquired 23 by or for the use of any such educational institution, notwithstanding provisions of this section, 24 shall vest in the board of regents of the educational institution. The board of regents may not 25 convey or otherwise transfer the title to or other interest in such real property unless the 26 conveyance or transfer is first authorized by an act of the general assembly, except as provided in 27 section 174.042, RSMo, and except that the board of regents may grant easements over, in and 28 under such real property without further legislative action.

29 14. Notwithstanding any provision of subsection 13 of this section to the contrary, the 30 board of governors of Missouri Western State University, University of Central Missouri [State 31 University], Missouri State University, or Missouri Southern State University; or the board of 32 regents of Southeast Missouri State University, Northwest Missouri State University, or 33 Harris-Stowe State University; or the board of curators of Lincoln University may convey or 34 otherwise transfer for fair market value, except in fee simple, the title to or other interest in such 35 real property without authorization by an act of the general assembly. The provisions of this 36 subsection shall expire August 28, [2011] 2017.

1 15. All county sports complex authorities, and any sports complex authority located in a 2 city not within a county, in existence on August 13, 1986, and organized under the provisions of 3 sections 64.920 to 64.950, RSMo, are assigned to the office of administration, but such authorities 4 shall not be subject to the provisions of subdivision (4) of subsection 6 of section 1 of the 5 Omnibus State Reorganization Act of 1974, Appendix B, RSMo, as amended.

6 16. All powers, duties, and functions vested in the administrative hearing commission,
7 sections 621.015 to 621.205, RSMo, and others, are transferred to the office of administration by a 8 type III transfer.”; and
9

10 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 11 accordingly.
