7 so endorsed, shall be served in other counties, as provided for in warrants in criminal 8 cases.

476.916. The sheriff of the first class county shall, without a warrant, make arrests 2 of any person who commits an offense in his or her presence, but such officer shall, before 3 the trial, file a written complaint with the judge hearing violations of county ordinances.

476.918. It shall be the duty of an attorney designated by the first class county to 2 prosecute the violations of the county's ordinances before the county court judges or before 3 the associate circuit judges hearing the violations of that county's ordinances. The salary 4 or fees of the attorney and his or her necessary expenses incurred in such prosecutions 5 shall be paid by the first class county.

476.920. In any trial for the violation of a county ordinance, all issues of fact shall 2 be tried by the judge except where trial by jury is authorized by law and the defendant or 3 his or her attorney requests a trial by jury.

476.922. In any first class county which has established a county court, whenever 2 a defendant accused of a violation of a county ordinance has a right to a trial by jury and 3 demands such trial by jury the county court judge shall certify the case for assignment.

476.924. 1. It shall be the duty of the county court judge to summon all persons 2 whose testimony may be deemed essential as witnesses at the trial, and to enforce their 3 attendance by attachment, if necessary. The fees of witnesses shall be the same as those 4 fixed for witnesses in trials before associate circuit judges and shall be taxed as other costs 5 in the case.

6 2. When a trial shall be continued by a county court judge it shall not be necessary 7 to summon any witnesses who may be present at the continuance; but the county court 8 judge shall orally notify such witnesses as either party may require to attend before him 9 or her on the day set for trial to testify in the case, and enter the names of such witnesses 10 on his or her docket, which oral notice shall be valid as a summons.

476.926. If, in the progress of any trial before a county court judge, it shall appear 2 to the judge that the accused ought to be put upon trial for an offense against the criminal

3 laws of the state and not cognizable before him or her as county court judge, he or she shall 4 immediately stop all further proceedings before him or her as municipal judge and cause 5 the complaint to be made before some associate circuit judge within the county.

476.928. 1. Any judge hearing violations of county ordinances may, when in his or 2 her judgment it may seem advisable, grant a parole or probation to any person who shall 3 plead guilty or who shall be convicted after a trial before such judge. When a person is 4 placed on probation he or she shall be given a certificate explicitly stating the conditions 5 on which he or she is being released.

6 2. In addition to such other authority as exists to order conditions of probation, the 7 court may order conditions which the court believes will serve to compensate the victim of 8 the crime, any dependent of the victim, or society in general. Such conditions may include, 9 but need not be limited to:

10 (1) Restitution to the victim or any dependent of the victim, in an amount to be 11 determined by the judge; and 12 (2) The performance of a designated amount of free work for a public or charitable 13 purpose, or purposes, as determined by the judge.

14 3. A person may refuse probation conditioned on the performance of free work.
15 If he or she does so, the court shall decide the extent or duration of sentence or other 16 disposition to be imposed and render judgment accordingly. Any county, city, person, 17 organization, or agency, or employee of a county, city, organization or agency charged with 18 the supervision of such free work or who benefits from its performance shall be immune 19 from any suit by the person placed on parole or probation or any person deriving a cause 20 of action from him or her if such cause of action arises from such supervision of 21 performance, except for intentional torts or gross negligence. The services performed by 22 the probationer or parolee shall not be deemed employment within the meaning of the 23 provisions of chapter 288.

24 4. The court may modify or enlarge the conditions of probation at any time prior 25 to the expiration or termination of the probation term.

476.930. 1. In any case tried before a county court judge who is licensed to practice 2 law in this state or before an associate circuit judge, except where there has been a plea of 3 guilty or the case has been tried with a jury, the defendant shall have a right of trial de 4 novo before a circuit judge or upon assignment before an associate circuit judge. An 5 application for a trial de novo shall be filed within ten days after judgment and shall be 6 filed in such form and perfected in such manner as provided by supreme court rule.

7 2. In any case tried with a jury before an associate circuit judge a record shall be 8 made and appeals may be had upon that record to the appropriate appellate court.

9 3. The supreme court may provide by rule what record shall be kept and may 10 provide that it be a stenographic record or one made by the utilization of electronic, 11 magnetic, or mechanical sound or video recording devices.

 476.932. In case of a breach of any recognizance entered into before a county court 2 judge or an associate circuit judge hearing a county ordinance violation case, the same 3 shall be deemed forfeited and the judge shall cause the same to be prosecuted against the 4 principal and surety, or either of them, in the name of the county as plaintiff. Such action 5 shall be prosecuted before a circuit judge or associate circuit judge, and in the event of 6 cases caused to be prosecuted by a county court judge, such shall be on the transcript of 7 the proceedings before the county court judge. All moneys recovered in such actions shall 8 be paid over to the county treasury to the general revenue fund of the county.

 476.934. A county court judge shall be disqualified to hear any case in which he or 2 she is in any way interested, or, if before the trial is commenced, the defendant or the 3 prosecutor files an affidavit that the defendant or the county, as the case may be, cannot 4 have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge. Neither 5 the defendant nor the county shall be entitled to file more than one affidavit or 6 disqualification in the same case.

 476.936. 1. If a county court judge be absent, sick or disqualified from acting 2 pursuant to the general administrative authority of the presiding judge of the circuit court 3 over the county court divisions within the circuit contained in section 478.240:

4 (1) In county court divisions having more than one judge, the presiding judge of 5 the county court division, if any, or if there is not a designated presiding judge of the 6 county court division, any other county court judge in said county court division may 7 request the presiding judge of the circuit court to designate a special county court judge 8 as provided in subsection 2 of this section until such absence or disqualification shall cease, 9 subject to subdivision (4) of this subsection;

10 (2) The presiding judge of the county court division may, by written directive, 11 designate a written procedure delegating authority by which the county court 12 administrator, if any, or the county court clerk, is authorized to notify and request the 13 presiding judge of the circuit court to designate a special county court judge as provided 14 in subsection 2 of this section;

15 (3) In the absence of multiple judges in a county court division, and in the absence 16 of a written directive and policy authorizing the procedure, the chief executive officer of 17 the county may request the presiding judge of the circuit court to designate a special 18 county court judge as provided in subsection 2 of this section or in cases of circumstances 19 making it impossible to reach the presiding judge of the circuit court in a timely manner, 20 the chief executive officer of the county may designate some competent, eligible person to 21 act as county court judge until the presiding judge of the circuit court can designate a 22 special county court judge as provided for under subsection 2 of this section;

23 (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (1) to (3) of this subsection, 24 should a vacancy occur in the office of an elected county court judge more than six months 25 before a general county election, then a special election shall be held to fill such vacancy; 26 and in case of vacancy in the office of an elected county court judge within less than six 27 months of a general county election, the office may be filled by a competent, eligible person 28 under the procedures set forth in subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection.

29 2. The presiding judge of the circuit court may appoint any other county court 30 judge within the circuit to act as a special interim county court judge for a county court 31 judge of the circuit who is absent, sick or disqualified from acting. The presiding judge 32 shall act upon the request of those with authority to make such request under subsection 33 1 of this section.

34 3. The governing body of the county shall provide by ordinance for the 35 compensation of any person designated to act as county court judge under the provisions 36 of this section.

476.938. When a fine is assessed for violation of an ordinance, it shall be within the 2 discretion of the judge assessing the fine to provide for the payment of the fine on an 3 installment basis under such terms and conditions as he or she may deem appropriate.

476.940. In the trial of county ordinance violation cases, a copy of a county 2 ordinance which is certified by the clerk of the county shall constitute prima facie evidence 3 of such ordinance. If such certified copy is on file with the clerk serving the judge hearing 4 a case and readily available for inspection by the parties, the judge may take judicial notice 5 of such ordinance without further proof.

476.942. 1. First class counties by ordinance may provide for fees in an amount per 2 case to be set under sections 488.010 to 488.020, for each county ordinance violation case 3 filed before a county court judge, and in the event a defendant pleads guilty or is found 4 guilty, the judge may assess costs against the defendant except in those cases where the 5 defendant is found by the judge to be indigent and unable to pay the costs. The fees 6 authorized in this subsection are in addition to service charges, witness fees and jail costs 7 that may otherwise be authorized to be assessed, but are in lieu of other court costs. The 8 fees provided by this subsection shall be collected by the county court division clerk in first 9 class counties electing or required to have violations of county ordinances tried before a 10 county court judge under section 476.902, or to employ judicial personnel under section
11 476.906, and disbursed as provided in subsection 1 of section 476.910. Any other court

12 costs required in connection with such cases shall be collected and disbursed as provided 13 in sections 488.010 to 488.020; provided that, each county court may establish a judicial 14 education fund in an account under the control of the county court to retain one dollar of 15 the fees collected on each case and to use the fund only to pay for:

16 (1) The continuing education and certification required of the county court judges 17 by law or supreme court rule; and 18 (2) Judicial education and training for the court administrator and clerks of the 19 county court. Provided further, that no county court shall retain more than one thousand 20 five hundred dollars in the fund for each judge, administrator or clerk of the county court.

21 Any excess funds shall be transmitted quarterly to the general revenue fund of the county 22 treasury.

23 2. In county ordinance violation cases which are filed in the associate circuit 24 division of the circuit court, fees shall be assessed in each case in an amount to be set under 25 sections 488.010 to 488.020. In the event a defendant pleads guilty or is found guilty, the 26 judge shall assess costs against the defendant except in those cases where the defendant is 27 found by the judge to be indigent and unable to pay the costs. In the event a defendant is 28 acquitted or the case is dismissed, the judge shall not assess costs against the county. The 29 costs authorized in this subsection are in addition to service charges, witness fees and jail 30 costs that may otherwise be authorized to be assessed, but are in lieu of other court costs.
31 The costs provided by this subsection shall be collected by the county division clerk in first 32 class counties electing or required to have violations of county ordinances tried before a 33 county court judge under section 476.902, or to employ judicial personnel under section
34 476.906, and disbursed as provided in subsection 2 of section 476.910. Any other court 35 costs required in connection with such cases shall be collected and disbursed as provided 36 in sections 488.010 to 488.020.

37 3. A county, when filing cases before an associate circuit judge, shall not be 38 required to pay fees.

39 4. No fees for a judge, county attorney or prosecutor shall be assessed as costs in 40 a county ordinance violation case.

41 5. In county ordinance violation cases, when there is an application for a trial de 42 novo, there shall be an additional fee in an amount to be set under sections 488.010 to 43 488.020, RSMo, which shall be assessed in the same manner as provided in subsection 2 of 44 this section.

45 6. First class counties by ordinance may provide for a schedule of costs to be paid 46 in connection with pleas of guilty which are processed in a traffic violations bureau. If a 47 county files its county ordinance violation cases before a county court judge, such costs

48 shall not exceed the court costs authorized by subsection 1 of this section. If a county files 49 its county ordinance violations cases in the associate circuit division of the circuit court, 50 such costs shall not exceed the court costs authorized by subsection 2 of this section.

2 476.944. If transferred by the supreme court or if assigned by the presiding judge 3 of the circuit or pursuant to court rule, a circuit judge may hear county ordinance violation 4 cases in those instances where provision is made in sections 476.900 to 476.944 for such 5 cases to be initially heard by an associate circuit judge and may exercise the other powers 6 granted associate circuit judges by this chapter. Costs shall be assessed in the same 7 amounts as if the cause was heard by an associate circuit judge. Such transfer or assignment may be on a case-by-case or general basis.
