

HB 1297 -- School Attendance

Sponsor: Lampe

This bill lowers the age when a child must start attending school from seven to six years of age and requires, beginning with school year 2010, kindergarten at all public schools to be a full-day program with the same school day length as other elementary grades in the school district.