

HB 1760 -- Adverse Possession

Sponsor: Rucker

This bill specifies that the common law doctrine of adverse possession will not apply in the state of Missouri and no person can claim any title, estate, or interest in real property based upon adverse possession or institute any action based upon a claim of adverse possession against any person having or claiming to have any title, estate, or interest in property. The bill also repeals certain provisions regarding adverse possession.