

HB 2163 -- Automatic Renewal Provisions in Contracts

Sponsor: Pollock

This bill requires any company that has a contract containing an automatic renewal provision to send a notice to the person with whom it has a contract at least 31 days before the contract automatically renews. The notice must contain the date the contract will renew and state that he or she has 31 days to terminate the contract prior to its automatic renewal.