

HB 2213 -- Immunity from Civil Liability for Emergency Care

Sponsor: Riddle

This bill specifies that any search and rescue operation medical assistant or tactical operation medical assistant rendering care or treatment, without additional pay, during a search and rescue or tactical operation to the level for which he or she has been trained will not be liable for civil damages for an act or omission other than gross negligence or willful or wanton acts or omissions.