

HB 2275 -- Public Records

Sponsor: Meiners

This bill requires a public governmental body that owns, operates, or maintains a web site which is open to the public to immediately withdraw a person's personal identifying information from the web site upon receiving a written request from the person. The provisions of the bill do not apply to a web site designed to disseminate information to the public concerning registered criminal offenders.