

HB 2337 -- Department of Revenue Fee Offices

Sponsor: Flanigan

Currently, the Director of the Department of Revenue gives preference to tax exempt organizations and political subdivisions when awarding fee office contracts in the competitive bidding process. This bill gives the preference to a tax exempt organization whose primary administrative office is located in the same county, legislative district, or senatorial district as the fee office and to political subdivisions.