

HB 2432 -- Central Dispatching for Emergency Services

Sponsor: Riddle

Currently, certain counties of the first classification are authorized to use revenues from an emergency telephone tax for central dispatching of fire protection, ambulance, and other emergency services, including the purchase and maintenance of communications and emergency equipment. This bill authorizes all counties of the first classification to use the emergency telephone tax revenues for these purposes.