

HB 2467 -- Annexation

Sponsor: Dieckhaus

This bill prohibits both voluntary and involuntary annexation of a parcel of property if, during the previous five years, the municipality annexed other property and any person or entity owned both the previously annexed property and the area proposed to be annexed, and the contiguous boundary common to the area proposed to be annexed and the existing municipal limit was part of the perimeter of the previously annexed property.