

HB 2469 -- Tampering with or Intimidating a Witness or Victim

Sponsor: Webb

This bill repeals the crime of victim tampering, expands the crime of tampering with a witness to include tampering with a victim in an official proceeding, and creates the crime of intimidating a witness or victim in the first, second, and third degrees. A person committing the crime of intimidating a witness or victim in the first degree will be guilty of a class A felony; a class B felony if in the second degree; and a class D felony if in the third degree. Anyone who commits the crime will not be eligible for probation or parole.
