

HJR 66 -- School District Bond Elections

Sponsor: Schoemehl

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment allows voters to approve school district bond issues with a simple majority if the election is held on a general election day or a general municipal election day. Currently, the size of the supermajority required for approval varies by election date from two-thirds to four-sevenths.