4

5 “Further amend said bill, Page 23, Section 304.180, Line 128, by inserting after all of said
6 line the following:

7 “11. Notwithstanding any provision of this section or any other law to the contrary, the 8 department of transportation shall issue emergency utility response permits for the transporting of 9 utility wires or cables, poles, and equipment needed for repair work immediately following a 10 disaster where utility service has been disrupted. Under exigent circumstances, verbal approval of 11 such operation may be made either by the motor carrier compliance supervisor or other designated 12 motor carrier services representative. Utility vehicles and equipment used to assist utility 13 companies granted special permits under this subsection may be operated and transported on 14 state-maintained roads and highways at any time on any day. The department of transportation 15 shall promulgate all necessary rules and regulations for the administration of this section. Any 16 rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the 17 authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to 18 all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 19 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to 20 chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are 21 subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed 22 or adopted after August 28, 2012, shall be invalid and void.”; and”; and
