AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1541, Page 3, Section 191.1156, I. 29, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:  "191.1157. Any woman who considers and decides to reject the idea of an abortion is state of Missouri shall be provided with unlimited support benefits from the state of Missour an amount that will put her family above the poverty line, whether she chooses to work or choose a stay at home mother, until the last child she considered aborting reaches the age of eighteen. These children shall also receive free state supported child care until they are old enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.	HOUSE	AMENDMENT NO
29, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:  "191.1157. Any woman who considers and decides to reject the idea of an abortion is state of Missouri shall be provided with unlimited support benefits from the state of Missouri an amount that will put her family above the poverty line, whether she chooses to work or choose a stay at home mother, until the last child she considered aborting reaches the age of eighteen. These children shall also receive free state supported child care until they are old enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and		Offered By
"191.1157. Any woman who considers and decides to reject the idea of an abortion is state of Missouri shall be provided with unlimited support benefits from the state of Missouri an amount that will put her family above the poverty line, whether she chooses to work or choose a stay at home mother, until the last child she considered aborting reaches the age of eighteen. These children shall also receive free state supported child care until they are old enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and	AMEND House Committee Su	ubstitute for House Bill No. 1541, Page 3, Section 191.1156, L
state of Missouri shall be provided with unlimited support benefits from the state of Missouri an amount that will put her family above the poverty line, whether she chooses to work or che to be a stay at home mother, until the last child she considered aborting reaches the age of eighteen. These children shall also receive free state supported child care until they are old enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and	29, by inserting after all of said	d section and line the following: an amount that will put her family above the poverty line, whether she chooses to work or che to be a stay at home mother, until the last child she considered aborting reaches the age of eighteen. These children shall also receive free state supported child care until they are old enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and	"191.1157. Any woma	an who considers and decides to reject the idea of an abortion in
to be a stay at home mother, until the last child she considered aborting reaches the age of eighteen. These children shall also receive free state supported child care until they are old enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and	state of Missouri shall be prov	vided with unlimited support benefits from the state of Missouri eighteen. These children shall also receive free state supported child care until they are old enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	an amount that will put her far	mily above the poverty line, whether she chooses to work or che enough for public education, and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	to be a stay at home mother, un	ntil the last child she considered aborting reaches the age of University system to ensure that their families are adequately supported and that each child reaches his or her full potential."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	eighteen. These children shall	l also receive free state supported child care until they are old reaches his or her full potential."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	enough for public education, a	and will be provided with free tuition to the State's college and
Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references	University system to ensure the	nat their families are adequately supported and that each child
·	reaches his or her full potentia	al. "; and
·
accordingly.	Further amend said bill by ame	ending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
Action Taken Date		