

HB 1688 -- Damage Caused by the Reintroduction of Wildlife

Sponsor: Guernsey

This bill specifies that any organization or entity that reintroduces any species of animal into Missouri must be financially responsible for any damage caused by the animal including, but not limited to, crops and pasture, fencing and other private property, motor vehicles, and losses as a result of harassment or disease spread from the reintroduced animal.