Offered By
AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 41, Page 1, Section 537.291, Line 15 inserting after all of said section and line the following:  "640.236. In all civil actions involving claims that arise from the ownership, maintenan management, or control of underground hard rock mining or hard rock milling sites that ceased operations prior to January 1, 1975, or that arise from chat or tailings generated at those sites, brought against persons or entities alleged to have owned, maintained, managed, or controlled sites, chat, or tailings at any time, such persons and entities shall be exempt from punitive or exemplary damages with respect to all claims that relate in any way to the ownership, maintena management, or control of such sites, chat, or tailings, so long as such persons or entities or the employees, agents, owners, parent, subsidiary, or any related companies have made or are making good faith efforts to remediate such sites. Any evidence may be introduced to demonstrate goo faith efforts to remediate, however, substantial compliance with an order or permit issued by on negotiated with either the state of Missouri or the United States concerning remediation or closs shall be deemed to be good faith efforts to remediate. The exemption from punitive damages rovided for in this section shall not apply if the trier of fact finds that the injury that is the subjute civil action is attended by circumstances of fraud, malice, or willful and wanton conduct. It event that good faith efforts to remediate a site have not been made or the injury is found to be attended by circumstances of fraud, malice, or willful and wanton conduct, then the total of any wards of punitive or exemplary damages shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars in the aggregate as to all defendants in a civil action within this section. The provision of section 537 shall not apply to such action, and one-half of any such awards for punitive or exemplary damages including claims for natural resource damages."; and
Action TakenDate