3

4 "488.2250. [For all transcripts of testimony given or proceedings had in any circuit court, the court 5 reporter shall receive the sum of two dollars per twenty-five-line page for the original of the transcript, and the 6 sum of thirty-five cents per twenty-five-line page for each carbon copy thereof; the page to be approximately 7 eight and one-half inches by eleven inches in size, with left-hand margin of approximately one and one-half
8 inches and the right-hand margin of approximately one-half inch; answer to follow question on same line
9 when feasible; such page to be designated as a legal page. Any judge, in his or her discretion, may order a 10 transcript of all or any part of the evidence or oral proceedings, and the court reporter's fees for making the 11 same shall be paid by the state upon a voucher approved by the court, and taxed against the state. In criminal 12 cases where an appeal is taken by the defendant, and it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the 13 defendant is unable to pay the costs of the transcript for the purpose of perfecting the appeal, the court shall 14 order the court reporter to furnish three transcripts in duplication of the notes of the evidence, for the original 15 of which the court reporter shall receive two dollars per legal page and for the copies twenty cents per page.
16 The payment of court reporter's fees provided in this section shall be made by the state upon a voucher
17 approved by the court] 1. For all appeal transcripts of testimony given or proceedings had in any circuit court,
18 the court reporter shall receive the sum of three dollars and fifty cents per legal page for the preparation of a 19 paper and an electronic version of the transcript.

20 2. In criminal cases where an appeal is taken by the defendant and it appears to the satisfaction of the 21 court that the defendant is unable to pay the costs of the transcript for the purpose of perfecting the appeal, the 22 court reporter shall receive a fee of two dollars and sixty cents per legal page for the preparation of a paper and 23 an electronic version of the transcript.

24 3. Any judge, in his or her discretion, may order a transcript of all or any part of the evidence or oral 25 proceedings and the court reporter shall receive the sum of two dollars and sixty cents per legal page for the 26 preparation of a paper and an electronic version of the transcript.

27 4. For purposes of this section, a legal page, other than the first page and the final page of the 28 transcript, shall be twenty-five lines, approximately eight and one-half inches by eleven inches in size, with 29 the left-hand margin of approximately one and one-half inches, and with the right-hand margin of 30 approximately one-half inch.

31 5. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the payment of court reporter's fees provided in 32 subsections 2 and 3 of this section shall be made by the state upon a voucher approved by the court. The cost 33 to prepare all other transcripts of testimony or proceedings shall be borne by the party requesting their 34 preparation and production who shall reimburse the court reporter the sum provided in subsection 1 of this 35 section."; and

36
37 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
