

HB 1034 -- Insurance for Cell Phones and Smart Phones

Sponsor: Jones (50)

This bill adds cellular phones and smart phones with built in applications and Internet access to the definition of "portable electronics" for the purpose of insurance policies under Sections 379.1500 to 379.1550. Currently, cellular phones and smart phones are not considered types of portable electronics for the purpose of insurance laws.