3 products" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "transportation"; and 4

5 Further amend said bill, Page 5, Section 304.180, Line 134, by inserting after all of said line the 6 following:
7

8 "11. Notwithstanding any provision of this section or any other law, the department of 9 transportation shall issue emergency utility response permits for the transporting of utility wires or 10 cables, poles, and equipment needed for repair work immediately following a disaster where utility 11 service has been disrupted. Under exigent circumstances, verbal approval of such operation may be 12 made either by the motor carrier compliance supervisor or other designated motor carrier services
13 representative. Utility vehicles and equipment used to assist utility companies granted special 14 permits under this subsection may be operated and transported on state-maintained roads and 15 highways at any time on any day. The department of transportation shall promulgate all necessary
16 rules and regulations for the administration of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term 17 is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall 18 become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if 19 applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers 20 vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to 21 disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking 22 authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2014, shall be invalid and void."; and 23

24 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 25 accordingly.
