4 "67.320. 1. Any county [of the first classification with more than one hundred ninety-eight 5 thousand but less than one hundred ninety-nine thousand two hundred] with a charter form of 6 government and with more than two hundred thousand but fewer than three hundred fifty thousand 7 inhabitants or any county of the first classification with more than one hundred one thousand but 8 fewer than one hundred fifteen thousand inhabitants may prosecute and punish violations of its 9 county orders in the circuit court of such counties in the manner and to the extent herein provided or 10 in a county municipal court if creation of a county municipal court is approved by order of the 11 county commission. The county may adopt orders with penal provisions consistent with state law, 12 but only in the areas of traffic violations, solid waste management, county building codes, on-site
13 sewer treatment, zoning orders, and animal control. Any county municipal court established 14 pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have jurisdiction over violations of that county's 15 orders and the ordinances of municipalities with which the county has a contract to prosecute and 16 punish violations of municipal ordinances of the municipality.

17 2. Except as provided in subsection 5 of this section in any county which has elected to 18 establish a county municipal court pursuant to this section, the judges for such court shall be 19 appointed by the county commission of such county, subject to confirmation by the legislative body
20 of such county in the same manner as confirmation for other county appointed officers. The number 21 of judges appointed, and qualifications for their appointment, shall be established by order of the 22 commission.

23 3. The practice and procedure of each prosecution shall be conducted in compliance with all 24 of the terms and provisions of sections 66.010 to 66.140, except as provided for in this section.

25 4. Any use of the term ordinance in sections 66.010 to 66.140 shall be synonymous with the 26 term order for purposes of this section.

27 5. In any county of the first classification with more than one hundred one thousand but 28 fewer than one hundred fifteen thousand inhabitants, the first judges shall be appointed by the county 29 commission for a term of four years, and thereafter the judges shall be elected for a term of four 30 years. The number of judges appointed, and qualifications for their appointment, shall be established
