

HOUSEAMENDMENT NO. ____Offered byof

1 AMEND House Bill No. 1591, Page 1, In the Title, Line 3, by 2 deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof
 3 "firearms, with penalty provisions."; and 4

5 Further amend said bill, Page 3, Section 571.111, Line 86,
 6 by inserting after all of said line the following:

7 "571.200. As used in section 571.202, the following terms
 8 shall mean:

9 (1) "Law enforcement officer", any person employed by the 10 United States, or a state, county, city, municipality, village,
 11 township, or other political subdivision as a police officer,
 12 peace officer, or in some like position involving the enforcement 13 of the law and protection of the public interest;

14 (2) "Licensed firearms dealer, licensed dealer, or dealer",
 15 a person who has a valid federal firearms dealer license, and all 16 additional licenses required by state or local law to engage in 17 the business of selling or transferring firearms;

18 (3) "Person", any individual, corporation, company,
 19 association, firm, partnership, club, organization, society,
 20 joint stock company or other entity.

21 571.202. 1. It is the purpose and intent of the general
 22 assembly that all firearm sales and transfers in this state be 23 processed through a licensed firearm dealer, who will conduct a 24 background check and create a record of each sale. The general 25 assembly believes this law will protect public safety by helping 26 to keep guns out of the hands of felons, domestic abusers, the 27 mentally ill, and other prohibited persons, and by aiding law
 28 enforcement efforts to solve gun crimes.

29 2. No person shall sell or otherwise transfer a firearm,

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 including selling or transferring a firearm via the internet, 2 unless:

3 (1) Such person is a licensed firearms dealer;

4 (2) The purchaser or other transferee is a licensed 5 firearms dealer; or

6 (3) The requirements of subsection 3 of this section are 7 met.

8 3. Where neither party to a prospective firearms
9 transaction is a licensed firearms dealer, the parties to the 10 transaction shall complete the sale or other transfer through a 11 licensed firearms dealer as follows:

12 (1) The seller or other transferor shall deliver the 13 firearm to the dealer, who shall retain possession of the firearm 14 until all legal requirements for the sale or other transfer have 15 been met, including compliance with any state or local waiting 16 periods;

17 (2) The dealer shall process the sale or other transfer as 18 if he or she were the seller or other transferor. The dealer 19 shall comply with all requirements of federal, state, and local 20 law that would apply if he or she were the seller or other 21 transferor of the firearm;

22 (3) The dealer shall conduct a background check on the 23 purchaser or other transferee in accordance with 18 U.S.C.
24 Section 922(t), and state and local law and, if the transaction
25 is not prohibited, deliver the firearm to that person after all 26 other legal requirements are met;

27 (4) If the dealer cannot legally deliver the firearm to the 28 purchaser or other transferee, the dealer shall conduct a 29 background check on the seller or other transferor in accordance 30 with 18 U.S.C. Section 922(t) and state and local law, and, if 31 the return is not prohibited, return the firearm to that person;

32 (5) If the dealer cannot legally return the firearm to the 33 seller or other transferor, the dealer shall deliver the firearm
34 to the sheriff of the county in which the dealer is located 35 within twenty-four hours; and

36 (6) The dealer may require the purchaser or other
37 transferee to pay a fee covering the administrative costs

1 incurred by the dealer for facilitating the transfer of the 2 firearm, plus applicable fees pursuant to federal, state, and 3 local law.

4 4. The provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section 5 shall not apply to:

6 (1) Any law enforcement or corrections agency, or law 7 enforcement or corrections officer acting within the course and 8 scope of his or her employment or official duties;

9 (2) A United States Marshall or member of the Armed Forces
10 of the United States or the National Guard, or a federal official 11 transferring or receiving a firearm as required in the operation
12 of his or her official duties;

13 (3) A gunsmith who receives a firearm solely for the 14 purposes of service or repair, or the return of the firearm to 15 its owner by the gunsmith;

16 (4) A common carrier, warehouseman, or other person engaged 17 in the business of transportation or storage, to the extent that 18 the receipt of any firearm is in the ordinary course of business 19 and not for the personal use of any such person;

20 (5) A person who is loaned a firearm solely for the purpose
21 of shooting at targets, if the loan occurs on the premises of a 22 properly licensed target facility, and the firearm is at all 23 times kept within the premises of the target range;

24 (6) A person who is under eighteen years of age who is 25 loaned a firearm for lawful hunting or sporting purposes or for 26 any other lawful recreational activity while under the direct 27 supervision and control of a responsible adult;

28 (7) A person who is eighteen years of age or older who is 29 loaned a firearm while the person is accompanying the lawful 30 owner and using the firearm for lawful hunting or sporting 31 purposes or for any other lawful recreational activity;

32 (8) A person who acquired the firearm by operation of law
33 upon the death of the former owner of the firearm within the 34 preceding sixty days. At the end of the sixty-day period, the 35 person must either have lawfully transferred the firearm or must 36 have contacted the attorney general's office to notify the 37 attorney general that he or she has possession of the firearm and

1 intends to retain possession of the firearm, in compliance with 2 all federal, state, and local laws; or

3 (9) An adult family member of the lawful owner of the 4 firearm if the owner resides with the family member but is not 5 currently present in the residence, provided that the family 6 member does not maintain control over the firearm for more than 7 fourteen consecutive days. This exception shall not apply if the 8 owner or the family member knows or has reasonable cause to 9 believe that federal, state, or local law prohibits the family
10 member from purchasing or possessing firearms, or the owner knows 11 or has reasonable cause to believe that the family member is 12 likely to use the firearm for unlawful purposes.

13 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this 14 section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of 15 not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for a 16 period not exceeding six months, or both. Such person shall be 17 guilty of a separate offense for each and every day during any 18 portion of which a violation of any provision of this section is 19 committed or continued by such person, and shall be punished
20 accordingly.

21 6. In addition to any other penalty or remedy, the 22 investigating law enforcement agency shall report any violation 23 of this section committed by a licensed firearms dealer to the 24 attorney general who shall in turn report the violation to the 25 Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives within the 26 United States Department of Justice."; and

27
28 Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional
29 references accordingly.
