

HOUSE*AMENDMENT NO. ____*Offered by*of

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1557, Page 3, 2 Section 304.875, Line 78, by inserting after all of said line the 3 following:

4 "9. (1) The governing body of any political subdivision
 5 desiring to use any automated traffic enforcement system under 6 this section may adopt an ordinance authorizing the use of such 7 system. No such ordinance adopted under this section shall 8 become effective unless the governing body of the political 9 subdivision submits to the voters residing within the political 10 subdivision at a state general, primary, or special election, or 11 on any other date available for elections for the political 12 subdivision, a proposal to authorize the governing body to use 13 any automated traffic enforcement system under this section. If 14 a majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified 15 voters voting thereon are in favor of the question, then the 16 ordinance shall become effective. If a majority of the votes 17 cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon are 18 opposed to the question, then the ordinance shall not become 19 effective unless and until the question is resubmitted under this 20 section to the qualified voters and such question is approved by 21 a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question.

22 (2) The governing body of any political subdivision that 23 has adopted the ordinance authorized in this section may submit 24 the question of repeal of the ordinance to the voters on any date
 25 available for elections for the political subdivision. If a 26 majority of the votes cast on the question by the qualified
 27 voters voting thereon are in favor of the repeal, that repeal
 28 shall become effective on December thirty-first of the calendar
 29 year in which such repeal was approved. If a majority of the

1 votes cast on the question by the qualified voters voting thereon
2 are opposed to the repeal, then the ordinance authorized in this 3 section shall remain effective until the question is resubmitted 4 under this section to the qualified voters and the repeal is 5 approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting on the 6 question.

7 (3) Whenever the governing body of any political 8 subdivision that has adopted the ordinance authorized in this 9 section receives a petition, signed by a number of registered
10 voters of the political subdivision equal to at least ten percent
11 of the number of registered voters of the political subdivision 12 voting in the last gubernatorial election, calling for an 13 election to repeal the ordinance imposed under this section, the 14 governing body shall submit to the voters a proposal to repeal
15 the ordinance. If a majority of the votes cast on the question 16 by the qualified voters voting thereon are in favor of the 17 repeal, the repeal shall become effective on December 18 thirty-first of the calendar year in which such repeal was 19 approved. If a majority of the votes cast on the question by the 20 qualified voters voting thereon are opposed to the repeal, then 21 the ordinance authorized in this section shall remain effective 22 until the question is resubmitted under this section to the 23 qualified voters and the repeal is approved by a majority of the 24 qualified voters voting on the question."; and

26 Further amend said title, enacting clause and intersectional 27 references accordingly.
