3
4 "349.045. 1. Except as provided in subsection 2 of this section, the corporation shall have a 5 board of directors in which all the powers of the corporation shall be vested and which shall consist 6 of any number of directors, not less than five, all of whom shall be duly qualified electors of and 7 taxpayers in the county or municipality; except that, for any industrial development corporation
8 formed by any municipality located wholly within any county of the second, third, or fourth 9 classification or any county of the first classification with more than sixty-five thousand but fewer 10 than seventy-five thousand inhabitants, directors may be qualified taxpayers in and registered voters 11 of such county. The directors shall serve as such without compensation except that they shall be 12 reimbursed for their actual expenses incurred in and about the performance of their duties hereunder.
13 The directors shall be resident taxpayers for at least one year immediately prior to their appointment.
14 No director shall be an officer or employee of the county or municipality. All directors shall be 15 appointed by the chief executive officer of the county or municipality with the advice and consent of 16 a majority of the governing body of the county or municipality, and in all counties, other than a city
17 not within a county and counties with a charter form of government, the appointments shall be made 18 by the county commission and they shall be so appointed that they shall hold office for staggered 19 terms. At the time of the appointment of the first board of directors the governing body of the 20 municipality or county shall divide the directors into three groups containing as nearly equal whole 21 numbers as may be possible. The first term of the directors included in the first group shall be two 22 years, the first term of the directors included in the second group shall be four years, the first term of 23 the directors in the third group shall be six years; provided, that if at the expiration of any term of 24 office of any director a successor thereto shall not have been appointed, then the director whose term 25 of office shall have expired shall continue to hold office until a successor shall be appointed by the 26 chief executive officer of the county or municipality with the advice and consent of a majority of the 27 governing body of the county or municipality. The successors shall be resident taxpayers for at least 28 one year immediately prior to their appointment.

29 2. A corporation in a county of the third classification without a township form of 30 government and with more than ten thousand four hundred but fewer than ten thousand five hundred 31 inhabitants shall have a board of directors in which all the powers of the corporation shall be vested 32 and which shall consist of a number of directors not less than the number of townships in such 33 county. All directors shall be duly qualified electors of and taxpayers in the county. Each township 34 within the county shall elect one director to the board. Additional directors may be elected to the 35 board to succeed directors appointed to the board as of the effective date of this section if the number 36 of directors on the effective date of this section exceeds the number of townships in the county. The
