

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 1916

97TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE WEBBER.

5984L.02I

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 311.060, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to liquor licenses.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 311.060, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 311.060, to read as follows:

311.060. 1. (1) No person shall be granted a license hereunder unless such person is of good moral character and a qualified legal voter and a taxpaying citizen of the county, town, city or village, nor shall any corporation be granted a license hereunder unless the managing officer of such corporation is of good moral character and a qualified legal voter and taxpaying citizen of the county, town, city or village; and no person shall be granted a license or permit hereunder whose license as such dealer has been revoked, or who has been convicted, since the ratification of the twenty-first amendment to the Constitution of the United States, of a violation of the provisions of any law applicable to the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquor, or who employs in his or her business as such dealer any person whose license has been revoked or who has been convicted of violating such law since the date aforesaid; provided, that nothing in this section contained shall prevent the issuance of licenses to nonresidents of Missouri or foreign corporations for the privilege of selling to duly licensed wholesalers and soliciting orders for the sale of intoxicating liquors to, by or through a duly licensed wholesaler, within this state.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, a permanent legal resident shall not be granted a license hereunder unless such person is of good moral character and a taxpaying resident of the county, town, city, or village, nor shall a permanent legal resident serve as managing officer of a corporation unless such

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

18 person is of good moral character and a taxpaying resident of the county, town, city, or 19 village.

20 2. (1) No person, partnership or corporation shall be qualified for a license under this 21 law if such person, any member of such partnership, or such corporation, or any officer, director, 22 or any stockholder owning, legally or beneficially, directly or indirectly, ten percent or more of 23 the stock of such corporation, or other financial interest therein, or ten percent or more of the 24 interest in the business for which the person, partnership or corporation is licensed, or any person 25 employed in the business licensed under this law shall have had a license revoked under this law
26 or shall have been convicted of violating the provisions of any law applicable to the manufacture 27 or sale of intoxicating liquor since the ratification of the twenty-first amendment to the 28 Constitution of the United States, or shall not be a person of good moral character.

29 (2) No license issued under this chapter shall be denied, suspended, revoked or otherwise 30 affected based solely on the fact that an employee of the licensee has been convicted of a felony 31 unrelated to the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquor. Each employer shall report the 32 identity of any employee convicted of a felony to the division of liquor control. The division of 33 liquor control shall promulgate rules to enforce the provisions of this subdivision.

34 (3) No wholesaler license shall be issued to a corporation for the sale of intoxicating 35 liquor containing alcohol in excess of five percent by weight, except to a resident corporation 36 as defined in this section.

37 3. A "resident corporation" is defined to be a corporation incorporated under the laws 38 of this state, all the officers and directors of which, and all the stockholders, who legally and 39 beneficially own or control sixty percent or more of the stock in amount and in voting rights, 40 shall be qualified legal voters and taxpaying citizens of the county and municipality in which 41 they reside and who shall have been bona fide residents of the state for a period of three years
42 continuously immediately prior to the date of filing of application for a license, provided that a 43 stockholder need not be a voter or a taxpayer, and all the resident stockholders of which shall 44 own, legally and beneficially, at least sixty percent of all the financial interest in the business to 45 be licensed under this law; provided, that no corporation, licensed under the provisions of this 46 law on January 1, 1947, nor any corporation succeeding to the business of a corporation licensed 47 on January 1, 1947, as a result of a tax-free reorganization coming within the provisions of 48 Section 112, United States Internal Revenue Code, shall be disqualified by reason of the new 49 requirements herein, except corporations engaged in the manufacture of alcoholic beverages 50 containing alcohol in excess of five percent by weight, or owned or controlled, directly or 51 indirectly, by nonresident persons, partnerships or corporations engaged in the manufacture of 52 alcoholic beverages containing alcohol in excess of five percent by weight.

53 4. The term "financial interest" as used in this chapter is defined to mean all interest, 54 legal or beneficial, direct or indirect, in the capital devoted to the licensed enterprise and all such 55 interest in the net profits of the enterprise, after the payment of reasonable and necessary 56 operating business expenses and taxes, including interest in dividends, preferred dividends, 57 interest and profits, directly or indirectly paid as compensation for, or in consideration of interest 58 in, or for use of, the capital devoted to the enterprise, or for property or money advanced, loaned 59 or otherwise made available to the enterprise, except by way of ordinary commercial credit or 60 bona fide bank credit not in excess of credit customarily granted by banking institutions, whether 61 paid as dividends, interest or profits, or in the guise of royalties, commissions, salaries, or any 62 other form whatsoever.

63 5. The supervisor shall by regulation require all applicants for licenses to file written 64 statements, under oath, containing the information reasonably required to administer this section.
65 Statements by applicants for licenses as wholesalers and retailers shall set out, with other 66 information required, full information concerning the residence of all persons financially 67 interested in the business to be licensed as required by regulation. All material changes in the 68 information filed shall be promptly reported to the supervisor.
