

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 1921

97TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE HINSON.

6143H.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 67.320, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to county municipal courts.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 67.320, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 67.320, to read as follows:

67.320. 1. Any county [of the first classification with more than one hundred ninety-eight thousand but less than one hundred ninety-nine thousand two hundred] with a charter form of government and with more than two hundred thousand but fewer than three hundred fifty thousand inhabitants or any county of the first classification with more than one hundred one thousand but fewer than one hundred fifteen thousand inhabitants may prosecute and punish violations of its county orders in the circuit court of such counties in the manner and to the extent herein provided or in a county municipal court if creation of a county municipal court is approved by order of the county commission. The county may adopt orders with penal provisions consistent with state law, but only in the areas of traffic violations, solid waste management, county building codes, on-site sewer treatment, zoning orders, and animal control. Any county municipal court established pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have jurisdiction over violations of that county's orders and the ordinances of municipalities with which the county has a contract to prosecute and punish violations of municipal ordinances of the municipality.

2. Except as provided in subsection 5 of this section in any county which has elected to establish a county municipal court pursuant to this section, the judges for such court shall be appointed by the county commission of such county, subject to confirmation by the legislative 18 body of such county in the same manner as confirmation for other county appointed officers.

19 The number of judges appointed, and qualifications for their appointment, shall be established
20 by order of the commission.

21 3. The practice and procedure of each prosecution shall be conducted in compliance with 22 all of the terms and provisions of sections 66.010 to 66.140, except as provided for in this 23 section.

24 4. Any use of the term ordinance in sections 66.010 to 66.140 shall be synonymous with 25 the term order for purposes of this section.

26 5. In any county of the first classification with more than one hundred one thousand but 27 fewer than one hundred fifteen thousand inhabitants, the first judges shall be appointed by the 28 county commission for a term of four years, and thereafter the judges shall be elected for a term
29 of four years. The number of judges appointed, and qualifications for their appointment, shall 30 be established by order of the commission.

2 [67.320. 1. Any county of the first classification with more than one
3 hundred ninety-eight thousand but less than one hundred ninety-nine thousand 4 two hundred inhabitants or any county of the first classification with more than 5 one hundred one thousand but fewer than one hundred fifteen thousand
6 inhabitants may prosecute and punish violations of its county orders in the circuit
7 court of such counties in the manner and to the extent herein provided or in a 8 county municipal court if creation of a county municipal court is approved by

10 provisions consistent with state law, but only in the areas of traffic violations,
11 solid waste management, county building codes, on-site sewer treatment, zoning
12 orders, and animal control. Any county municipal court established pursuant to 13 the provisions of this section shall have jurisdiction over violations of that 14 county's orders and the ordinances of municipalities with which the county has 15 a contract to prosecute and punish violations of municipal ordinances of the 16 municipality.

17 2. Except as provided in subsection 5 of this section in any county which 18 has elected to establish a county municipal court pursuant to this section, the 19 judges for such court shall be appointed by the county commission of such 20 county, subject to confirmation by the legislative body of such county in the same 21 manner as confirmation for other county appointed officers. The number of 22 judges appointed, and qualifications for their appointment, shall be established
23 by order of the commission.

24 3. The practice and procedure of each prosecution shall be conducted in 25 compliance with all of the terms and provisions of sections 66.010 to 66.140,
26 except as provided for in this section.

27 4. Any use of the term ordinance in sections 66.010 to 66.140 shall be synonymous with the term order for purposes of this section.

28 5. In any county of the first classification with more than one hundred 29 one thousand but fewer than one hundred fifteen thousand inhabitants, the first 30 judges shall be appointed by the county commission for a term of four years, and 31 thereafter the judges shall be elected for a term of four years. The number of 32 judges appointed, and qualifications for their appointment, shall be established
33 by order of the commission.]
