

HB 1050 -- HIGHWAYS AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

SPONSOR: Rhoads

Beginning January 1, 2015, this bill increases the number of members of the Highways and Transportation Commission from six to seven, requires each commissioner appointed after that date to be a resident of a Department of Transportation geographical district different from that of the other commissioners, and prohibits more than four commissioners from being members of the same political party.