

HB 1854 -- HIGHWAYS AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

SPONSOR: Redmon

Beginning January 1, 2015, this bill increases the membership of the Highways and Transportation Commission within the Department of Transportation from six to seven members. No more than four commissioners can be members of the same political party, and each commissioner appointed after that date must be a resident of a Department of Transportation geographic district different from that of the other commissioners.