

HB 2273 -- SALES TAX EXEMPTION FOR DRUGS FOR TERMINAL ILLNESS

SPONSOR: Burlison

This bill authorizes a state and local sales and use tax exemption for drugs, biological products, and devices that have successfully completed phase one of a clinical trial to be used to treat terminal illness, including components and repair parts, disposable and single use supplies.