1 receive a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability in an amount equal to sixty-five percent of 2 the amount such taxpayer contributed to the fund evidenced by a tax credit certificate.

3 3. The commissioner shall be responsible for the administration and issuance of tax credit 4 certificates authorized by this section.

5 4. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed fifty percent of the taxpayer's state 6 tax liability for the taxable year for which the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be 7 allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars per taxable year. Any amount 8 of credit that the taxpayer is prohibited by this section from claiming in a taxable year shall not be 9 refundable. However, any tax credit that cannot be claimed in the taxable year in which the 10 contribution was made may be carried over to the next three succeeding taxable years until the full 11 credit has been claimed.

12 5. Except for any excess credit which is carried over under subsection 4 of this section, a 13 taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the amount of such taxpayer's contribution
 14 to the fund in such taxpayer's taxable year has a value of one hundred dollars or more, up to a 15 maximum of fifty thousand dollars. Any excess of a contribution above fifty thousand dollars or 16 contribution less than one hundred dollars shall be ineligible to receive a tax credit under this section.

17 6. The total amount of tax credits authorized under the provisions of this section shall not 18 exceed five million dollars in any fiscal year. The total amount of tax credits issued but not 19 redeemed shall not exceed fifteen million dollars in any fiscal year. Tax credits shall be issued in the 20 order contributions are received.

21 7. Tax credits issued under this section may not be transferred, sold, or assigned.

22 8. The department of elementary and secondary education may promulgate rules to 23 implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in 24 section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective
 25 only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable,
 26 section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested
 27 with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to
 28 disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking
 29 authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2015, shall be invalid and void.

30 210.1500. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

31 (1) "Eligible recipient", a school-aged child enrolled in kindergarten through twelfth grade 32 who:

33 (a) Is currently in the protective custody of the state; and

34 (b) Has been in the protective custody of the state for at least twelve of the last thirty-six 35 months;

36 (2) "Qualified school", a nonpublic elementary or secondary school in this state;

37 (3) "Scholarship", an annual grant to eligible recipients to cover all or part of the applicable 38 tuition and fees at a qualified school, the amount of which shall be the lesser of:

39 (a) The previous year's tuition and fees for nonscholarship students at the qualified school;

40 (b) Ninety percent of the previous year's average current expenditure per average daily 41 attendance for the student's district of residence; or

1       (c) The tuition amount set by the voluntary interdistrict coordinating council for the student's 2 district of residence, if applicable.

3       2. There is hereby created in the state treasury the "Foster Child Education Fund", which 4 shall consist of moneys collected from donations made under section 135.2000. The state treasurer
5 shall be custodian of the fund. In accordance with sections 30.170 and 30.180, the state treasurer
6 may approve disbursements. The fund shall be a dedicated fund and, upon appropriation, moneys in 7 the fund shall be used solely for the purposes of providing scholarships to eligible recipients to 8 attend a qualified school. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080 to the contrary, any 9 moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general
10 revenue fund. The state treasurer shall invest moneys in the fund in the same manner as other funds
11 are invested. Any interest and moneys earned on such investments shall be credited to the fund.

12       3. Any eligible recipient who receives a scholarship under the provisions of this section shall 13 continue to be eligible to receive his or her scholarship upon a legal adoption.

14       4. In the event an eligible recipient who receives a scholarship under the provisions of this 15 section graduates from the qualified school to which he or she first received a scholarship, the 16 eligible recipient shall remain eligible to receive a scholarship under this section to a new qualified 17 school.

18       5. The department of elementary and secondary education shall prepare and maintain an 19 easy-to-search database containing statewide assessment scores of all recipients of scholarships 20 under this section. Each recipient shall be assigned a random identification number by the 21 department for purposes of the database and no personally identifiable data shall be accessible on the 22 database.

23       6. The department of elementary and secondary education may promulgate rules to 24 implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in 25 section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective
26 only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable,
27 section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers vested
28 with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to
29 disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking
30 authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2015, shall be invalid and void."; and

31
32 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 33 accordingly.
