AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 921, Page 1, in the Title, Line 2, by deleting the word "dyslexia" and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "elementary and secondary education"; and Further amend said bill and page, Section A, Line 2, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following: "161.960. 1. There is hereby established in the department of elementary and secondary education a "Council for Community Education". The council shall have a membership of eleven persons, appointed by the governor. Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups: (1) Civic organizations; (2) Community-ducation organizations; (3) Community education organizations; (3) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council shall. (9) Teachers (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers for include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet then four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. (2) Advise the community education programs for establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers for include a chairperson, tice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. (3) Advise the community education programs for establishing the bylaws of the council	House	Amendment NO deleting the word "dyslexia" and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "elementary and secondary education"; and Further amend said bill and page, Section A, Line 2, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following: "161.960. 1. There is hereby established in the department of elementary and secondary education a "Council for Community Education". 2. The council shall have a membership of eleven persons, appointed by the governor. Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups: (1) Civic organizations; (2) Community-based organizations; (3) Community-based organizations; (4) Local government; (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community education programs. 		Offered By the following: "161.960. 1. There is hereby established in the department of elementary and secondary education a "Council for Community Education". 2. The council shall have a membership of eleven persons, appointed by the governor. Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups: (1) Civic organizations; (2) Community-based organizations; (3) Community education organizations; (4) Local government; (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education on issues relating to the establishment of community education ministration for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 	deleting the word "dyslexia" and
 education a "Council for Community Education". 2. The council shall have a membership of eleven persons, appointed by the governor. Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups: Civic organizations; Community-based organizations; Community education organizations; Local government; Local school district administrators; Local school district administrators; Post-secondary education; School boards; and Teachers. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. The council shall: Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; Advise the commissioner of education programs; Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and 	1 0	e, Section A, Line 2, by inserting immediately after all of said line
 education a "Council for Community Education". 2. The council shall have a membership of eleven persons, appointed by the governor. Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups: Civic organizations; Community-based organizations; Community education organizations; Local government; Local school district administrators; Local school district administrators; Parent organizations; Local school district administrators; Dost-secondary education; School boards; and Teachers. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. The council shall: Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; Advise the commissioner of education programs; Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and 	"161.960. 1. There is h	ereby established in the department of elementary and secondary
Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups: (1) Civic organizations; (2) Community-based organizations; (3) Community education organizations; (4) Local government; (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs
Membership may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups: (1) Civic organizations; (2) Community-based organizations; (3) Community education organizations; (4) Local government; (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs
 (2) Community-based organizations; (3) Community education organizations; (4) Local government; (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.
 (3) Community education organizations; (4) Local government; (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 	(1) Civic organizations;
 (4) Local government; (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education on issues relating to the establishment of community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 	(2) Community-based of	organizations;
 (5) Local school district administrators; (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 	(3) Community education	on organizations;
 (6) Parent organizations; (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 	(4) Local government;
 (7) Post-secondary education; (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.
 (8) School boards; and (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.
 (9) Teachers. 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 		cation;
 3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for the available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · meeting of the council for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the council and electing officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.
to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The council shall not meet more than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.		•
times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem allowance. 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.	• •
 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 	• · · ·	•
 4. The council shall: (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 		be reinibursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem
 (1) Conduct feasibility studies on the establishment of community education programs within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.
 within the state; (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 		studies on the establishment of community education programs
 (2) Advise the commissioner of education and the department of education on issues relating to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 		studies on the establishment of community education programs
to the establishment of community education programs; (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.		sioner of education and the department of education on issues relating
 (3) Make recommendations for a state plan for community education which sets forth the goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs. 		1 goals and objectives of a community schools program and establishes a system of priorities for targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.
targeting available resources on the areas with the greatest need within a school district; and (4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.		1
(4) Make recommendations for the funding of local community education programs.
5. For purposes of this section, "community school", means a school that makes its facilities		section, "community school", means a school that makes its facilities available for citizen use, coordinates activities of local citizens in identifying program needs and		•
Action Taken Date	Action Taken	Date
Action Taken Date

1	establishing priorities, identifies and utilizes available program resources, and assists in the initiation
2	of programs to improve the cultural, social, recreational, and educational opportunities available in a
3	community. "Community education program", means a program in which a public building,
4	including a public elementary or secondary school, is used as a community center operated by a
5	school board in cooperation with other groups in the community, community organizations, and local
6	governmental agencies to provide educational, recreational, cultural, health care, and other related
7	community services in accordance with the needs, interests, and concerns of the community.
8	161.965. 1. There is hereby established in the department of elementary and secondary
9	education a "Task Force on School Safety Improvement".
10	2. The task force shall have a membership of eleven persons, appointed by the commissioner
11	of the department of elementary and secondary education. Membership may include, but not be
12	limited to, representatives of the following groups:
13	(1) Licensed attorneys with experience in criminal defense who are in no way involved in
14	prosecuting crimes;
15	(2) Community-based organizations; (2) Community advection concentrations;
16	(3) Community education organizations; (4) Low enforcement according in aluding at least one representative from a site net within a
17	(4) Law enforcement agencies, including at least one representative from a city not within a
18	county, a county with a charter form of government and with more than nine hundred fifty thousand
19 20	inhabitants, or a home rule city with more than four hundred thousand inhabitants and located in more than one county;
20 21
21	 (5) Local government; (6) Local school district administrators;
22	(7) Parent organizations;
23 24	(8) Postsecondary education;
24	(9) School boards; and
23 26	(10) Teachers.
27	3. The commissioner of education or the commissioner's designee shall convene the first
28	meeting of the task force for the purpose of establishing the bylaws of the task force and electing
29	officers to include a chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary. The task force shall not meet more
30	than four times annually. Members may be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive a per diem
31	allowance.
32	4. The task force shall conduct studies on:
33	(1) School security features and practices schools and law enforcement officers can take to
34	decrease the likelihood that an event or crisis will occur;
35	(2) Actions schools and law enforcement officers can take to eliminate or reduce the loss of
36	life and property damage related to an event or crisis;
37	(3) The establishment of programs within schools to provide instruction in grades seven
38	through twelve on the criminal justice system and make curriculum recommendations for such
39	programs, including recommendations on specific curriculum designed to educate students about
40	career opportunities in law enforcement; and
41	(4) The practicality and need for the appointment of a director of school safety in a county
42	with a charter form of government and with more than nine hundred fifty thousand inhabitants."; and
43
44
45	Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references

46 accordingly.